EXCERPT
[12:16]	KALEY	Wouldn't you be worried though, everyone you know is like what—or you don't, you don't care.
	WILLIAMS	Yeah. It's risky, I know.
	KALEY	No I mean it's smart because you're not sending anything, but—
	WILLIAMS	Well I don't use WhatsApp that much to talk to people, so people looking at my WhatsApp it's like ehh. [Unintelligible], don't think nothing different. Alright so their job is to bring it up to me. They switch bags and pull up with the bag that they came in with.
	KALEY	A duffel bag?
	WILLIAMS	Yeah.
	CALAMIA	So just walk us through how it happened here. How did you get notified of the picture?
	WILLIAMS	They sent it to me, from down there, wherever.
	CALAMIA	For this instance, how did you get the picture, who sent it to you?
	WILLIAMS	Jerry sent it to me.
	CALAMIA	Jerry sent it to you? And then you put it as your Whatsapp profile, so Woolaston knew exactly the bag. So the flight comes into to Newark, right? Who's working that? What's the crew that worked that flight? Like, talk to us. Who's the team? How many people are we talking about here?
	WILLIAMS	It's a big team. But the smaller the load, the less people you get involved. Like if it's a couple bags, it's like 20 people down there that working. Like I said from straight up to the top, straight down.
	KALEY	What do you mean at the top?
	WILLIAMS	What's it called like the police?
	CALAMIA	TSA? Customs?
	WILLIAMS	Customs, yeah.
	CALAMIA	There's a person at customs involved?
	WILLIAMS	There's a customs officer, there's a supervisor, and down the ramp there's a shift leader. Those are just the big guys. And then everybody else is just working for them. You know, just doing what they're told.
	KALEY	Just regular ramp workers.
	CALAMIA	So you have a customs actual, one of the blue uniform guys?
	KALEY	Not TSA?

	WILLIAMS	No. Because he would tell them, to tell me, if it's gonna get run up on.
	CALAMIA	So the customs officer would tell—
	WILLIAMS	—them, to tell me, don't send it, because they're watching that flight.
	CALAMIA	Has that ever happened before?
	WILLIAMS	Yes. A few times.
	CALAMIA	Really?
	KALEY	He'd tell you though?
	WILLIAMS	No. He doesn't talk to me personally.
	KALEY	Tyrone or someone else?
	WILLIAMS	Right. And they would call me and say 'he said nah because' whatever whatever, whatever reason.
	CALAMIA	So they'll call you and say officers are going to hit that flight.
[15:25]	CALAMIA	That's really good, that's really good news that we are hearing. I appreciate your honesty.
